(Performance Directed Management)

Hosted by and held at the

Morris County Public Safety Training Academy

500 West Hanover, Morris Plain, NJ 07950

8:00am-4:00pm March 6, 2024

It is a fundamental principle of American labor relations that employees owe their employers a full day's work for a full day's pay. Employers owe their employees a fair and objective method for defining, measuring and evaluating whether employees are living up to their responsibilities—without resorting to quotas. This course provides the necessary information and system required for employers and employees to fulfill their obligations to one another and the citizens they serve. Topics of discussion: The Seven Labor Principles of Just Cause; Case law that supports management's rights to discipline and terminate; Due process and pre-deprivation rights. Command and supervisory personnel from law enforcement should attend this class.

Attendees are taught:

- Management's rights to measure and evaluate work unit productivity without establishing quotas
- How to defend productivity standards from the "Quota" challenge
- How to develop job-specific work productivity rating scores
- How to calculate productivity rating scores
- How to ensure that employees are receiving notice when they fail to be productive employees

Students receive class the outline, model forms, rules, and a certificate of attendance. Class size is limited so please register early.
